

Rhode Island State Veteran's Benefits & Discounts

The state of Rhode Island provides several veteran benefits. This section offers a brief description of each of the following benefits.

- Rhode Island Veteran's Home
- Rhode Island Veteran's Cemetery
- Rhode Island Veteran's Benefit Counseling
- Other State Sponsored Veteran Benefits

The Rhode Island Veteran's Home

The Rhode Island Veterans Home, a 110-acre complex located on Mount Hope Bay, at 480 Metacom Avenue in Bristol, Rhode Island. Phone: (401) 253-8000 Fax: (401) 254-1340

The mission of the home is to provide quality nursing and residential care to those Rhode Island war veterans in need. Social, medical, nursing and rehabilitative services are also provided to veterans and their survivors and/or dependents to improve their physical, emotional and economic well-being.

The Veterans Home Offers:

- The Veterans Home has 260 nursing care beds in six long term care units, including a Alzheimer's Care Unit. There are also two ambulatory care units with 79 beds. Additional services include: dental, x-ray and pharmacy services and transportation to and from the Veterans Administration Hospital clinics in Providence.
- Rehabilitation Services includes physical and occupational therapy.
- Social Services includes individual and group therapy and specialized support groups.
- Transitional Services include short-term stays in dorms or a more intensive Transitional Supportive Program for homeless veterans.
- Activities and Services for Residents include movies, crafts, card games, bingo, birthday parties, cookouts

- Religious Services are also available.

In addition to the Veterans Home buildings, the facilities include a library, gift shop, cafe, bank, barbershop, and beautician. The Veterans Home has an active Family Council that is open to family members. They meet monthly to discuss common issues and concerns affecting the residents of the home.

The Rhode Island Veterans Home has an active Family Council that is made up of family members. They meet on the last Friday of the month to discuss common issues and concerns that affect the residents of the Home. The Family Council also discusses legislation affecting not only the residents of the Home, but veterans in general. Speakers of interest are invited to address the group.

Admission to the RI Veterans Home is open to veterans of the U.S. Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Merchant Marine, Coast Guard or Air Force who were honorably discharged and who served for 90 days or more during any foreign war or conflict in which the United States was engaged or in any expedition or campaign for which the United States government issued a campaign medal or as a result of service, acquired a service-related disability or disease.

Applicants must be honorably discharged and deemed in need of the care and services provided at the Home. In addition, war service veterans need to have lived in the state at least two years prior to the date of application or who were inducted into military services while a resident of the State of Rhode Island.

The Rhode Island Veterans Home will accept any veteran we are licensed to accept, however, the Medical Director has the authority to approve or disapprove any veteran's diagnosis for admission to the Home. Admission to the Rhode Island Veterans Home is voluntary.

Applications can be downloaded at:

- RI Veterans Home Application
http://www.vets.ri.gov/documents/RIVeteransHome/rivh_application.pdf
- Application for Palliative Care
http://www.vets.ri.gov/documents/RIVeteransHome/rivh_application_palliative_care.pdf

For more information on how to apply please call the RI Veterans Affairs Office. The RI Office of Veterans Affairs will conduct home visits, if needed, for veterans applying for admission

Visit the Rhode Island Veterans Services website <http://www.vets.ri.gov> for contact information and benefits assistance.

The Rhode Island Veteran's Cemetery

The Division of Veterans Affairs maintains a dignified and solemn military cemetery on 265 acres in Exeter, Rhode Island. To date there have been 22,625 internments at the cemetery. The cemetery serves as a final resting place for Rhode Island Veterans who have served their country honorably during wartime and their eligible dependents. Twenty-year retirees of the Rhode Island National Guard have recently become eligible, as have reserve components of the National Guard and two-year active services personnel with honorable discharges. Veterans, his or her spouse, and an eligible dependent child may be buried at the RI Veterans Memorial Cemetery located at 301 S County Trl, Exeter, RI 02822 Tel: (401) 268-3088. For photos of the various memorials located within the cemetery refer to <http://www.vets.ri.gov/slideshow/index.htm>.

Click on the below subjects for details contained within the RI General Laws Chapter 30-25 Burial of Veterans.

Section 30-25-1: Firing squad for funerals

Section 30-25-2: Appropriations for firing squads

Section 30-25-3: Burial at public expense

Section 30-25-4: Designation of person to conduct burial - Burial by relatives or friends - Maximum allowance

Section 30-25-5: Place of burial - Place of burial - Disinterment from pauper cemetery

Section 30-25-6: Repealed

Section 30-25-7: Veterans dying in state institutions

Section 30-25-8: Maintenance of north cemetery

Section 30-25-9: Expenses of north cemetery

Section 30-25-10: Care of neglected graves

Section 30-25-11: Consent of custodian of neglected grave

Section 30-25-12: Appropriations for care of graves

Section 30-25-13: Acceptance and administration of gifts

Section 30-25-14: Rhode Island veterans' memorial cemetery

Visit the Rhode Island Veterans Services website <http://www.vets.ri.gov> for contact information and benefits assistance.

Rhode Island Veterans Benefits Counseling

The Rhode Island Veterans Affairs Office offers benefit counseling including a variety of social services to Rhode Island armed forces personnel, veterans, and their dependents who are seeking assistance.

This office processes all applications for admissions to the RI Veterans Home and will conduct home visits, if needed, for those veterans applying for admission. Other services handled by this office include casework, counseling, referral, budget management, and completion of claims (i.e. pensions, compensations, social security).

The Veterans Affairs Office also provides information needed for the admission team at the Rhode Island Veterans Home to assign the proper level of nursing care to the veterans it serves. In addition, staff at the Veterans Affairs Office work with all state veteran services organizations to assist veterans with their requests for services.

Visit the Rhode Island Veterans Services website <http://www.vets.ri.gov> for contact information and benefits assistance.

Other Rhode Island State Veteran Benefits

Education

Programs - The U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) administers a variety of education benefit programs. Many Veterans and active duty personnel can qualify for more than one education benefits program. Answers to VA's Education Benefit Programs can be found on their FAQs website <https://gibill.custhelp.com/app/home/session/L3RpbWUvMTM4ODAxNzU4NS9zaWQvdjNsSIVLSWw%3D>. Available Education Programs include:

- Educational Assistance Test Program (Section 901): An Educational Assistance Test Program created by the Department of Defense Authorization Act of 1981 (Public Law 96-342) to encourage enlistment and reenlistment in the Armed Forces.
- Montgomery GI Bill - Active Duty (MGIB-AD): The MGIB program provides up to 36 months of education benefits. This benefit may be used for degree and certificate programs, flight training, apprenticeship/on-the-job training and correspondence courses.
- Montgomery GI Bill - Selected Reserve (MGIB-SR): The MGIB-SR program may be available to you if you are a member of the Selected Reserve. The Selected Reserve includes the Army Reserve, Navy Reserve, Air Force Reserve, Marine Corps Reserve and Coast Guard Reserve, and the Army National Guard and the Air National Guard.
- National Call to Service Program: This program requires a participant to perform a period of national service to be eligible for benefits. It is a Department of Defense program that is administered by VA.
- Reserve Educational Assistance Program (REAP): A Department of Defense education benefit program designed to provide educational assistance to members of the Reserve components called or ordered to active duty in response to a war or national emergency (contingency operation) as declared by the President or Congress.

- Survivors' and Dependents' Educational Assistance Program (DEA): Dependents' Educational Assistance provides education and training opportunities to eligible dependents of certain veterans. The program offers up to 45 months of education benefits.
- The Post-9/11 GI Bill: The Post-9/11 GI Bill provides financial support for education and housing to individuals with at least 90 days of aggregate service after September 10, 2001, or individuals discharged with a service-connected disability after 30 days. You must have received an honorable discharge to be eligible for the Post-9/11 GI Bill.
- Veterans Educational Assistance Program (VEAP): VEAP is available if you elected to make contributions from your military pay to participate in this education benefit program. Your contributions are matched on a $2 for $1 basis by the Government.
- Veterans Retraining Assistance Program (VRAP): VRAP offers up to 12 months of training assistance to unemployed Veterans.

RI Colleges & Universities

- Brown University: The University participates in the Department of Veterans Affairs' new Post 9/11 GI Bill and the Yellow Ribbon GI Education Enhancement Program.
- Bryant University: The University participates in the Department of Veterans Affairs' Yellow Ribbon Program and offers participation in the Army ROTC program as well as individual support services. It also offers scholarships for military students and veterans.
- Community College of Rhode Island: CCRI was chosen by the VA to participate as one of eight schools nationwide for the VetSuccess on Campus pilot program.
- Johnson and Wales University: Among a select number of colleges and universities that participate in the Yellow Ribbon GI Education Enhancement Program (Yellow Ribbon Program).
- New England Institute of Technology: New England Tech has a dedicated VA Representative on campus to guide you through the process of utilizing your GI Bill benefits.
- Providence College
- Rhode Island College: Visit the Veteran Resource Center for assistance and resources related to veterans education benefits and a wide range of other benefit programs for military members, veterans, and their families.
- Rhode Island School of Design
- Roger Williams University: Roger Williams University is approved for benefits for the education of veterans, active duty service personnel, disabled veterans, and qualified dependents.
- Salve Regina University: Veterans' benefits may be provided to veterans of the armed services who have had active duty service, and benefits are also available to children of deceased or disabled veterans. In addition, Salve Regina participates in the Yellow Ribbon program.
- University of Rhode Island: The Veterans Office at the University of Rhode Island is available to assist you with your VA benefits.

Healthcare

Providence VA Medical Center, Rhode Island offers a variety of health services to meet the needs of our nation's Veterans. Many of our services are listed below; however, you may also view the phone directory or contact us for additional information.

- ALS - information and resources for patients and families members with ALS-Amyotrophic lateral sclerosis Tel: 401-273-7100 Ext. 3234
- Caregiver Program - Whether you and the Veteran you care for could use some help at home or you just need someone to listen, we're here to support you. Tel: 401-273-7100 Ext. 3283 or 4249
- Lesbian Gay Bisexual and Transgender Veterans - Information for Lesbian Gay Bisexual and Transgender Veterans Tel: 401-273-7100 Ext. 3293
- Oncology / Hematology - Clinical services provided to Veterans for oncology and hematology Tel: 401-273-7100 Ext. 3450, 3451, 319
- Out-Patient Pharmacy Process Improvements Tel: 401-273-7100
- Pharmacy - PVAMC prescription, RX information Tel: 401-273-7100 or 866-363-4486
- Release of Information - Staff can assist you with requests for medical records and are experts in our patients' rights and their health records. Tel: 401-273-7100 Ext. 3481/3482/3485
- Returning Service Members - VA is ready to provide health care and other medical services to our nation's returning OEF/OIF/OND Servicemembers. Tel: 401-273-7100 Ext. 6137
- Social Work Services / Geriatrics & Extended Care (GEC) Tel: 401-273-7100 Ext. 6105
- Women Veterans - Services available to women Veterans include comprehensive primary care as well as specialty care such as reproductive services and treatment for military sexual trauma. Tel: 401-273-7100 Ext. 6191

Homeless Veterans

Contact VA's National Call Center for Homeless Veterans at 1-877-4AID-VET (1-877-424-3838) to speak to a trained VA responder. The hotline and online chat are free and neither VA registration nor enrollment in VA healthcare is required to use either service.. Housing Resources include

- Guidebook for Incarcerated Veterans: Helps previously incarcerated Veterans avoid homelessness by providing state-specific resources on housing, health care, treatment, and community re-adjustment. Developed in partnership with the National Coalition of Homeless Veterans.
- Homeless Assistance Resources \(RI\): Provides a state-specific list of resources for the homeless, including shelters, food banks, legal services, emergency rent and utility assistance, housing counselors, and help hotlines. Provided by the Department of Housing & Urban Development.
- HUD Continuum of Care Contacts \(CoC\) for Homeless Programs \(RI\): Provides a statewide list of lead agencies responsible for coordinating HUD's homeless programs. A CoC lead agency can identify homeless assistance resources in your area. Provided by the Department of Housing & Urban Development.
- Operation Stand Down \(RI\): Combats homelessness among veterans of the U.S. Armed Forces by providing housing, educational, and financial resources, and connecting them with vital human resources and social services.
- The Homeless Providers Grant and Per Diem Program: Provides grants and per diem payments (as funding is available) to help public and nonprofit organizations establish and operate supportive housing and service centers for homeless Veterans.
- VA Homeless Veteran Program Coordinators \(RI\): Find contact information for the VA Homeless Coordinator in your community. Services include outreach, case management, and referrals for shelter and housing. After hours, contact your VA medical center's emergency room for information on emergency

Veteran License Plates

The Rhode Island DMV offers the following military related specialty plates. No photos are available online however, fees and ordering information is at <http://www.dmv.ri.gov/plates/veteran>.

- Disabled Veteran
- National Guard
- Prisoner of War (POW)
- Purple Heart
- Veteran
- Veteran Gold Star Parent

[Source: <http://www.military.com/benefits/veteran-state-benefits/rhode-island-state-veterans-benefits.html> Dec 2013 ++]

Military Discounts in Rhode Island

1. MVDC has close to 1000 business locations in Pennsylvania that have discounts for military personnel and veterans. In addition to businesses providing discounts, the state of Rhode Island also provides discounts for those that have served. To find business discounts, enter your zipcode and category in the search box at <http://militaryandveteransdiscounts.com/location/rhode-island.html>.

2. Veterans Designation on drivers license: Yes

3. State Discounted Fees and Taxes for veterans - none

4. Property tax and Financial Benefits for veterans - none

5. State Education Discounts for veterans - none

6. To find businesses that provide military and veteran discounts refer to <http://militaryandveteransdiscounts.com>.

[Source: <http://militaryandveteransdiscounts.com/location/rhode-island.html> Dec 2013 ++]